WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina.

The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best tie yet introduced. It combines the advantages of great strength, great simplicity and ease in manipulation, besides the difficulty of taking up the slack of the band in the operation of baling, is entirely obviated.

DESIRABLE PROPERTY.

I WILL SELL OR EXCHANGE FOR GOOD City property one of the best Cotton and Grain Farms in Eastern North Carolina. The tract of land contains about twenty-two hundred acres, of which seven hundred acres are cleared, under fence and in good condition for cultivation. A large part of it is in cultivation this year. The soil is fertile, neighborhood good, labor cheap and plentiful. The dwelling house is large and commodious, with all necessary and convenient outhouses. The Stables, Barns, houses for laborers &c are good and numerous. This farm has immediately on navigable water, and has passing through it a good water power, where there is now a Grist and Saw Mill and Cotton Gin. The place is desirable for conducting large Mercantile operations, and is a beautiful location for a town or colony. A Steamer passes every day, and touches at the wharf two hundred yards in front of the dwelling. The surrounding county is rich and improving, and settled by intelligent, refined and prosperous people. Address

VISIT TO WARREN.

We never fail to enjoy a visit to Warren. In the better days of the Republic, we spent many a pleasant season at Shocco and at Jones'.

Warren county in proportion to its area and white population, contained a larger number of slaves before the war, than any other county in the State. This made Warren a heavy sufferer from its results. Her people were among the wealthiest and most refined in the State, and most marked for their generous hospitality.

Our reporter will give a full account of the barbecue. We have only space to remark, that we heard many persons declare that the meeting had never been surpassed except by the great Bragg dinner, as it is called, given in compliment to Gen. then Capt. Braxton Bragg at the close of the Mexican war.

The good people of Warren were greatly surprised and delighted at the Conservative victory in the State. They were so outnumbered by the Loyal Leagues they made no effort to beat them by running county candidates. We believe this to be bad policy. It is best to try to beat them at every election. The dripping of water will wear away a stone, and the rascals deserve to be dripped on till they are worn to a frazzle.

MURDER WILL OUT.

It is an old remedy seldom that the murderer escapes the keen, constant eye of time, and goes down to his grave undiscovered. Man and women may for a time escape the vigilance of men, but the All seeing One sees them and will discover them to the public.

In 1865 or '66 we recollect to have heard of the murder by shooting of Jesse Hart of Greene Co. by a band of desperadoes.—Subsequently we are told that the Grand Jury of Greene Co. found a true bill upon the testimony of Mrs. Hart, against Joseph Dixon of that County, and the indictment by some management has been hung up ever since.

Recently a man named John Sykes has made a confession as a participator in the murder of Hart and has been lodged in the jail of Greenville, Pitt Co. N. C. He also avers, it is said, that others were engaged in it and that Joseph Dixon, the man recently nominated by the Radicals and elected to Congress in the 2d District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Col. Heaton, commanded the party and gave the order to kill Hart. The command was obeyed and Mr. Hart was killed.

Were not the Radicals of the 2d District cognizant of the above particulars when they nominated and elected Dixon? Has not Gov. Holden been in possession of these facts? Why has he not had a bench warrant issued and had the perpetrators of this horrid murder arrested and tried? What has Gov. Holden done to arrest the murderers of the McLeod's of Cumberland? Why has he not had Graham and others, supposed to be the murderers, arrested and tried? Bench warrants can reach them.

There is much stronger evidence to implicate others in the murder of John W. Stephens of Caswell, than there is to convict F. A. Wiley, Mitchell or Roan with that foul deed; why are not other suspected parties arrested by bench warrant and tried? No Grand Jury in the country will find a true bill against Wiley, Mitchell and Roan, but there is a general impression about Yanceyville, that facts connect others with that murder, and yet Gov. Holden, takes no notice of them.

Is it because the suspected murderers of Jesse Hart, of the McLeods, and of John W. Stephens, are understood to be Radicals, that they are not arrested? Can no political capital be made out of the exposure of Radical Ku Klux by the Governor and Judge Pearson? Murder will out. Why attempt to cloak Radical crime and Radical criminals, when there is proof of their guilt, and at the same time attempt to fix guilt upon innocent Democrats and Conservatives? Does it not pay?

TWO OFFICES AND ONE OFFICER.—The attention of Congress and of the General Assembly, ought to be called to the anomalous practice now in vogue among the Radicals, putting two or three offices of trust and profit in the hands of one man. Samuel T. Carrow for instance is the U. S. Marshal of the District of North Carolina and at the same time Sheriff of the county of Beaufort. Here are two highly responsible and highly profitable offices in the hands of one man, when there are so many equally capable men to fill them, without employment. This ought not to be. Let it be remedied.

SUPREME COURT.—We observe that many of our cotemporaries designate the late proceedings of Judges Pearson, Dick and Settle at Chambers as the proceedings of the Supreme Court. This is a mistake. The cases in habeas corpus and bench warrants were all at Chambers. When the proceedings of the Supreme Court of North Carolina become as partizan and as ridiculous as the Court appeared at Chambers, we shall move that it be dissolved at once.

WHAT A GOVERNOR!!

It is difficult for the people of North Carolina to feel they have a Governor. In all the past history of the State, however divided by party or how much sower the people were opposed to the incumbent, still the respectability of the office and its position was not rendered odious by the conduct of the Governor. How pleasantly do all the people without regard to party, remember the wise and efficient administration of the lamented JONATHAN WORTH, under the most trying period of our history since the war. How assiduously did he labor to preserve the honor and integrity of the State. How anxious was he to promote the welfare of all, and how careful was he, while he never flinched from duty, to give no one any real ground for offence. How punctilliously did he watch the expenditures of the government and the state of the Treasury and how careful was he to protect the Treasury against unlawful demands. The history of his administration is yet to be written. Should it ever be done, Jonathan Worth will be found to have been a model Governor.

Gov. Holden's course both from incapacity and the want of the will to do right, has been the opposite of Gov. Worth's.—As soon as he was seated in his chair, he enunciated at once the doctrine, "No Conservative or Democrat need look for a crumb from the government. Republicans have triumphed and they alone must rule the State and enjoy its benefits." There was at once instituted a direct conspiracy not against Conservatism and Democracy merely, but against the property and the property holders of the State and against their social status. Every effort was made to put down and trample under foot, especially the class of men who had hitherto enjoyed the confidence of the people because of their superior intelligence and virtue, and on the other hand to elevate the ignorant, the depraved and the vicious.

He did not seek to call to his aid, the best classes even among Republicans. He seemed to fear and does to this hour fear, every man of intelligence and virtue of the Republican party. He must be sure that a man belongs to him before he trusts him. Hence almost in every instance where the choice of an officer of any grade was left to him alone, he selected men with no regard to qualification or virtue, but for their devotion to him. Afraid of the law and its restraints, he has taken care to consult those who know little law and who have more devotion to him than to law and justice. Hence his whole administration has been a series of blunders, of disregard of law approaching to criminality.

He has exercised the power of pardon to an extent not warranted by justice or a proper regard to the interests of society. All his measures have been directed to the one object of gratifying his ambition and often his personal spleen. His utter disregard of the poverty and wants of the people have been manifest. He has sought constantly to increase the public burden. He was privy to the Penitentiary swindle and ordered the issue of the bonds, when he must have known it was a swindle. He approved the sale of the Central Railroad bonds for 65 when they were worth 80 cents at least. He was connected with the scheme of the carpet baggers and Littlefield and Swepson to bankrupt the State by the issue of the Railroad bonds. He was instrumental in their issue in a few weeks and placing them in the hands of irresponsible men, when he knew it ought to have taken from three to five years to force them upon the market. By this means he has directly contributed to bankrupt the State, and if it must come, to force upon us repudiation.

Finally, to cap the climax, to gratify his malice and ambition and to defeat the Democracy in the late election, he raised the cry of Ku Klux, when he was himself deeply involved in the guilt and crime of the Loyal Leagues, as a reason for raising an armed force to overawe and make war upon the people of the State. The history of this outrage and crime when written will place Holden among the Neros and Caligulas of history, in crime.

His disregard of law and of judicial authority has been fully shown in his complications with Judge Pearson, and lastly in his resistance to the injunction served upon the Public Treasurer and his pay master by Judge Mitchell. The Public Treasurer and paymaster we have reason to know fully respected the injunction Holden, backed no doubt by Pearson, Dick and Settle, in defiance of law and in contempt of Judge Mitchell, peremptorily removed young Jenkins, the paymaster from office and appointed another whom he forced to pay out the public monies, to the unlawful troops he had forced upon the State. Such is an outline of Gov. Holden's administration.

SHERIFFS.—We observe that many of the newly elected Sheriffs will have difficulty in being installed, where the incumbents determine to hold over. At a late period of the late canvass our attention was drawn to the fact, that the lawyers were generally agreed that Sheriffs and Clerks were in the same category under the new regime and could claim their offices for four years from the time of election. If this be so, it was unfortunate that it was not generally known. It would have been better, under such circumstances to have had no candidates for Sheriff.

GENERAL GRANT will neither protect the people of Texas from the Indians, nor allow them to protect themselves. The Texas authorities raised troops for that purpose, but General Grant would not suffer them to act. Meanwhile the savages are butchering white men, women and children in all directions. When Governor Holden asked General Grant to send Federal soldiers into North Carolina for political purposes, they were promptly dispatched. No time was lost. But when the people of Texas implore aid to keep the Indians in check, to prevent the savages from committing acts of barbarism, they are treated with coldness, or their prayer refused. Aiding Radical scalawags is one thing. Protecting peaceable citizens another.—Philadelphia Age.

THE BARBECUE AT WARRENTON

BY OUR REPORTER.

In compliance with an invitation from the people of Warren, the Editor and the Reporter of the SENTINEL went down on Saturday morning last to participate in the Barbecue, &c.

On our arrival at the Warrenton Depot we were met by a committee with carriages to take us to Warrenton. When we reached its suburbs, Wm. J. White, Esq. chief marshal and his Assistants, Messrs C. W. Spruill, Kemp Plummer, R. M. Collins, and H. A. Foote, met us and escorted us to the Male Academy Grove, near the centre of the town.

A large concourse of people, gentlemen and ladies, had assembled there to greet the speakers on their arrival, and among them we were pleased to see so many of the colored population, who were foremost and loudest in their welcome.

In large numbers the ladies thronged the windows and porches, denoting by their waving of handkerchiefs, their sweet smiles and the many beautiful boquets which they lavished upon Mr. Turner and all the speakers, that they were with us heart and soul in the glorious cause of liberty and right.

THE PROGRAMME.

The procession was now formed and marched according to the following programme, which was announced by Col. Wm. Davis.

Chief Marshal and Assistant, Colors.
Music, (Salisbury Band.)
Speakers in open carriages.
Other vehicles—those containing Ladies in front.
Horsemen.
Pedestrians occupied the side walks.

The procession moved down Main street to Plummer's spring. On our arrival at this well known and most excellent spring, which boils up from beneath a massive rock, situated in the midst of a magnificent grove of oaks, we found a spacious stand erected. The carriages containing the ladies formed a circle around the stand and the audience occupied the space in its centre. The Marshal announced the order of the day, and the hour having arrived for

THE SPEAKING,

Col. Wm. S. Davis introduced to the audience Walter A. Montgomery, Esq., of Warrenton, who delivered the introductory address. We listened with great pleasure to the remarks of this young orator, who entertained his audience for an hour with so eloquent and forcible speech. We heard several of the older members of the Bar speak of it as being a masterly effort. Long may he wave.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., was next introduced and spoke for two hours. His speech elicited close attention and excited much applause. After Mr. Turner closed, the whole audience was invited to partake of refreshments.

THE BARBECUE.

At a short distance from the stand was erected two very long tables, which were heavily laden with most excellent fare.—One of these tables was occupied by the whites and the other by the colored people; four smaller tables were occupied by the speakers and invited guests, all of said tables were dressed alike and contained the same variety of food. Every one present seemed to enjoy themselves hugely, if we are to judge from the hearty manner they partook of the repast. It was unmistakably good, we know because we tried it, and was compelled at last to tear ourself away from it.

Mr. John W. Wiggins, of Warren, who superintended the getting up of this most excellent dinner, deserves much credit for his great skill and good taste in preparing the barbecue. We were informed that 30 shoats, 53 sheep and 25 beeves, were slaughtered for this occasion.

SPEAKING RESUMED

The dinner being over, at a signal from the Band, the crowd repaired to the stand, when Wm. Eaton, Esq., one of Warren's noble and gifted sons, whom her people have delighted to honor on many occasions, was then introduced to the audience. His speech was an able and eloquent effort. He was followed by L. C. Edwards, Esq., of Oxford, who entertained the audience with one of his best and most stirring speeches. Judge Gilliam being too unwell to speak was obliged to decline. The procession was then reformed and returned to the town in the order in which it had left it.

THE OCCASION

was spoken of by many of the older citizens of the county as being the largest and grandest demonstration ever had in the county of Warren, since the memorable BRAXTON BRAGG DINNER. The number in procession was estimated by many to exceed 2500. We were of the impression that it would reach at least 3,000. Much is due to the Marshals for the good order which prevailed throughout the entire day; they were very efficient. The number of colored persons present was estimated at about 600; though every means had been used by the enemies of Conservatism to keep them away. It had been circulated "that it was a plot of the Conservatives to poison the colored people of Warren." We understood that Jno. Hyman (colored) had made himself quite officious in his efforts to dissuade his colored friends from attending the barbecue. Such conduct will recoil upon Radicalism.

THE LADIES.

The presence of the ladies added much to the pleasure of the occasion. We had before heard of the beauty and refinement of the daughters of Warren, but we were not prepared to behold such a blaze of beauty as met our gaze, as we marched in procession down Main street.

As the procession passed the Female College over which Rev. Mr. Jones presides, some 80 of the young ladies, all dressed in white, appeared upon the lawn and waved their handkerchiefs in token of welcome and approval.

The Salisbury Brass Band added much to the interest of the occasion. The music was in good taste, well selected and well rendered.

Mr. Turner, Judge Gilliam, Col. L. C. Edwards and the Reporter were most delightfully entertained during their stay in Warrenton at the hospitable residence of that whole souled gentleman, Capt. Wm. Alston, who with his lady and father-in-law, Wm. Eaton, Esq., showed us every attention.

The Reporter desires to express his obligations to Mr. Spruill, editor of the Warrenton Gazette for his kindly attentions. Indeed, the whole community brought the visitors under the warmest obligations by their generous and hospitable consideration. The Warrenton barbecue of 1870 and the good people, we shall always remember with the highest pleasure.

FOUR WORTHY GOVERNORS.—It is a curious fact, and one well worthy of the consideration of thinking men, that North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida are all alike afflicted with corrupt Governors. Holden, in North Carolina, it is true, has recently seen all of his plans frustrated and his schemes destroyed.—Elections are also about to take place in this State, in Georgia, and in Florida, and and they may result in destroying the power of Scott, of Bullock, and of Reed, but the statement is indisputable that these States are all to-day suffering from the venality of their rulers, some of whom would have had prominence, except through the accidents of a revolution.—South Carolina paper.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR: The people of North Carolina have achieved a glorious victory over the ignorant and deceived negroes, and their leaders, the depraved, thievish carpet baggers, and that small and inglorious band of natives who have deserted their race, their section, and their honor, to share in the spoils of office and build up their private fortunes upon the ruins of the country. Civil liberty has been saved from impending ruin, and venality and peculation by officers of the government, have been stamped with the stern condemnation of an outraged people. These are the first fruits of victory; but how shall we make it further useful, not to any man or set of men, but to the whole State, and to posterity? is now the anxious inquiry of every true man from the mountains to the sea.

"Fortitude," says Lord Bacon, "is the virtue of adversity, moderation the virtue of prosperity." The former has been exhibited by our people to a degree never surpassed by any example in history; will they be found wanting in the latter, now that the time has come to call it into exercise? Moderation towards our enemies and the enemies of our liberties themselves, not towards the wrongs they have done, and the abominable laws and institutions they have attempted to fasten upon us, for that would be a crime and not a virtue. As to them, let the ax be laid at the root of the tree.

What our people demand is a return to the Constitution and laws of our fathers, with only such changes as the late war and its results have made necessary; and to achieve this let the Legislature as soon as it meets, submit to a vote of the people, a proposition to call a Convention to form a Constitution, and at the same time to vote for members to that Convention, to assemble if Convention is carried, otherwise not. Let them provide that the Convention shall not in the new Constitution, interfere with the right of the negro to testify as witness, to vote, and to hold office. That they shall not alter the present homestead and exemptions of personal property except to so modify the provisions as that they shall not extend to losses of suits, official bonds or bonds of executors, administrators and guardians.

It is necessary to call a Convention, because the legislative way of amending it is so slow that a generation would pass away before all the abominations of the present system could be removed, and because all of our old, tried statesmen in whose wisdom the people confide, or nearly all are excluded from the Legislature by the 14th amendment, and it is therefore composed, for the most part, of patriotic boys, but no one could be excluded from the Convention.

It is necessary to restrict the Convention in the particulars I have mentioned, to quiet the fears of the negroes on the one hand, and of the many thousands of good white men who are interested in home steads and exemptions on the other, and thus to spike the guns of the unscrupulous Radical leaders who would endeavor to defeat a Convention before the people.—When the Convention assembles, in two months time, it can take our old Constitution and re-write it, throwing its scattered parts all into one instrument providing for the rights of the negro, and the homestead and exemptions as above, restoring the old Judiciary, County Courts, and all, and sweeping away the vast innovations of the Radical party, giving us back the cheap, venerable and most excellent institutions of our fathers, and when they do this every true son of North Carolina will hail the members of that Convention as the restorers of the republic.

In selecting a United States Senator the Legislature should pay no attention to the matter of disabilities under the 14th amendment. The occasion demands and the people require, that they should select the best man, and throw the responsibility of relieving or rejecting him upon Congress. The South has had no friend to speak for her in the Congress of the United States since the war. She has been slandered and traduced by all, and worst of all, by her own traitorous sons, and vile carpet baggers, sitting there by the force of bayonets to misrepresent her. She has had no one there to plead her cause, to tell her sorrows and her wrongs, to vindicate her rights and her honor, this must not be any longer.—Let us send to the Senate North Carolina's favorite son the noble, the true, the eloquent Vance, with his national reputation as a great and unblemished statesman; or let us send that undaunted advocate of civil liberty, and unyielding victim of tyranny, Josiah Turner, and let one of them sit down by the side of the traitorous parasite John Pool, and he will hang his head in shame; and North Carolina will no longer be, "voiceless in her woe," she will not lack a son to plead for her lost rights and recorrect her grievous wrongs before the nation and the world. I doubt not when the next Congress assembles, the pressure of public opinion at the North will be so great upon it, that it will be compelled to pass a law repealing that abomination of abominations, the test oath, and a general disability bill, but suppose it does not, who that understands the crisis, would not rather have Governor Vance, or Josiah Turner, standing at the door of the Senate, for the next six years, asking admission in the name of a sovereign State, and refused, than to have a second or a third rate man in his seat, who had been admitted there for his weakness and pusillanimity, who perhaps had cringed and pandered to our oppressers, to get his disabilities removed, and who,

"Would not in a peremptory tone
Assert, the nose upon his face his own."

In one word, who would not rather be unrepresented than misrepresented?

CITIZEN.

FOR THE IMPROVED
"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Alleagh Co., Newbern, with late improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1½ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH LESS THAN TWENTY MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 500 lbs.
One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.
It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.
It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.
I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.
Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28Inches; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

TEMPERANCE FAIR.—We learn that the regular and associate members of Oak City Council, Friends of Temperance, of this city are making preparations to open a Fair at the Council Hall, on Tuesday and Wednesday next, the 13th and 14th inst. The object is to raise a fund to pay off a debt, and everything nice and pretty will be brought to bear for the accomplishment of the object.

A FAILURE.—We have been waiting two days for the public appearance of a "goak" in the shape of a pun, that has been in process of construction by the four-pence ha'penny sized Brigadier, on the subject of the hogs in Alamance running when they hear the name of "Long" uttered. The point of the "goak," (should it ever come to a point,) is that the said Brigadier, himself, recently heard Long's name called and stood his ground; ergo, hogs will not run at the sound of that ominous name.

CLUBS.—An unknown friend from Forsyth sends us $50 for a club of subscribers from that county. More than this, he advanced the cash for his neighbors until they can refund. In his letter he says: "Continue the good work. May God bless and make your career on earth long, happy and prosperous, is the wish of a sincere friend 76 years of age." Many thanks to him.—Send on your clubs.

MASONIC.—At a regular meeting of Enoch Council No. 5, Royal and Select Masters held in Masonic Hall, Sept. 6, 1870, the following officers were elected and appointed:

Comp. John Nichols,	Fr. Ill. G. M.
" J. H. Separk,	Ill. H. P.
" D. W. Bain,	D. C. W.
" W. H. Dodd,	M. Ex.
" Alex. S. Heide,	M. Dep.
" M. Rosenbaum,	C. G.
" A. D. Royster,	C. C.
" A. P. Bryan,	S.
" J. M. Betts,	G.

We are pleased to learn that the Council is in a flourishing condition.

THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE.—This excellent Hotel is doing well under the auspices of Dr. Blacknall. We note the following names among its arrivals to-day: Hon W. M. Shipp, Attorney General of N. C. A. P. Miller, S. C., Col. Griffith and R. W. Enns, of Alabama.

RURAL CAROLINIAN.—This is one of the best publications in the country for Southern farmers. Every planter should take it. The September number is admirable. Published by Evans & Cogswell, Charleston, S. C., monthly, at $2 per annum.

OFFICIAL BONDS.—In many counties the newly elected officers are being installed. It is important to the people and to all concerned, that the official bonds of the officers be ample and well secured. Wherever the old officers hold over and bonds are to be renewed, it is equally important to see that bonds renewed are fully secured. These bonds the people are interested in,—While all officers ought to be capable and honest, yet ordinary prudence requires that every officer should be compelled, as far as the obligation of a bond can make it so, to be both honest and capable.

SMOTHERED.—Yesterday morning, an infant, about two months old, was discovered dead in the bed of its mother, one Mary Jane Pope, a colored woman, residing in the Southwestern portion of the city.

A jury of inquest was summoned by Special Coroner Magnin, who, hearing testimony, returned a verdict of "accidental smothering."

ANDREW JACKSON JONES.—Andrew is the Holden President of the Western (Coalfields) Railroad from Fayetteville. He is good at cards they say, good at a trade in State cotton, and Holden must have thought he and Jones might make a good thing out of the bonds appropriated for that Road, but the Legislature defeated them. We suppose Jones knows as much about Railroading as he does about the Natural Sciences and hence his Road is going to wreck. About $15,000 worth of the rolling stock and machinery of the Road we observe, is under execution to pay a debt of only about $3800. What does that mean? Will Jones allow the sale to take place? Is the plan now to sell out the material of the Road to the hands, for a song, so that they may control it? We hope that wheel will be scotched. By the way, what is Holden keeping Jones, Sloan and Littlefield at the head of the Railroads for? Have not their administration been ruinous to the Roads? Why keep them in? Littlefield ought to have been kicked out long ago, and so ought the rest, for the good they have done. We hope the next General Assembly will take prompt action in regard to Railroads, and break up the miserable political machinery which controls them.

GOOD MANAGEMENT.—The entire expense of the County Commissioners of the county of Beaufort for the year ending 1st September, 1870, for mileage and per diem was only $430 50. We call the special attention of the Commissioners of Wake to this item.

RIOT.—A public meeting has been held in Jones county, condemning in strong terms, a practice said to be in vogue in that section, of persons going around at night "humming," as it is called—which seems to be another name for Ku Kluxing. The meeting very properly determined to put it down.

THE GRAND DUKE'S!—The gray-haired can hardly believe their eyes when they see their whitened locks restored to their pristine beauty by a clear and transparent fluid. PHILO'S VITALIA, OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, is the article in question, and is free from any sediment.

THE BURGIN HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—George R. Burgin, who has been in prison several days by commitment of Judge Brooks of the U. S. District Court, on failure to give the bail required of him, was brought before Judge Bond of the U. S. Circuit Court, yesterday, on a petition for a discharge from custody.

Messrs. Bailey and Badger appeared for the petitioner and urged his discharge on the ground 1st. that Judge Brooks had no jurisdiction in the case, and, secondly, the proceedings were irregular. The opposite ground was taken by Messrs. Battle and Merrimon, and very ably, and we thought conclusively argued, that Judge Brooks had jurisdiction and that every legal requisition had been complied with.

The decision of Judge Bond had not been given when we left the Court room; it will probably be rendered this morning.

P. S. On the conclusion of argument, Judge Bond stated that he would take the papers and his notes home with him, and after consideration of the questions involved remit his decision to the Marshal.

LETTER FROM COL. R. H. COWAN.

ALLEGHANY SPRINGS, Aug. 23, 1870.

Messrs. Engelhard & Price,

Wilmington, N. C.:

GENTLEMEN:—I have just received your paper of the 19th inst., and have read the article headed "United States Senator," in which you do me the honor to suggest my name to the General Assembly as a candidate for that position.

I thank you, with all my heart, for the high compliment you have paid me; and I truly feel that an election to the United States Senate, by the first Conservative Legislature which has assembled in North Carolina since the passage of the reconstruction acts, is an honor which ought to satisfy the highest ambition. But my views of the duties which devolve upon us all, in the present condition of North Carolina, will not permit me to consent to come before that body as a candidate for this, or any other office.

The members of the next General Assembly will have a herculean task to perform. At the very best, the full discharge of their duties will be surrounded with difficulties and disagreeable embarrassments. I am not willing to add to their embarrassments, or to place the slightest obstacle in the way of the speedy and successful performance of their duties. I feel that this is no time to press individual claims, or to attempt to indulge personal partialities. Preferences of all kinds should be yielded freely to considerations for the public good. Let the General Assembly act firmly and promptly for the honor and the interests of the State, and those of us who have labored earnestly for the success of our party, in the late election, will have abundant cause for satisfaction and thankfulness.

There is still another obstacle which, of itself, would be conclusive with me. In my judgment the General Assembly ought not to elect any one to the Senate who is laboring under political disabilities, unless it can be rendered absolutely certain that those disabilities will be removed by Congress. The risk is a great one; and it is one which our State cannot afford to take. It may be that the Senate will follow the precedent set by the House of Representatives in the cases of the contested elections from Louisiana and South Carolina; and, instead of removing the disabilities of our Senator elect, will give his seat to the candidate who received the next highest number of votes. In such an event, and it is not an improbable one, the Conservative party would have thrown away an important part of the fruits of their victory, and North Carolina would be misrepresented for six years longer on the floor of the United States Senate.

I confess that I am unable to see how this absolute certainty of the action of Congress can be reached in any case, and I am confident that it cannot possibly exist in my case. I know not what "good grounds" you may have for saying "that my disabilities would be removed in the event of my election;" but I feel very sure that you are mistaken. On the contrary, while I know that certain influential members of the Republican party would be faithful to their promises to vote for the removal of my disabilities, I have no reason to believe that they could accomplish it. I have no expectation and no hope of relief until Congress shall pass an act of universal amnesty.

With these views and feelings, while I have no desire to thrust my opinions on any one, I have felt that your article has made it incumbent on me to express them, and to ask of you respectfully, but positively, to withdraw my name from the position in which you have placed it. I do so with perfect sincerity, and without any desire to dictate to the General Assembly, or to interfere with the claims of those distinguished gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in the same connection. I shall be perfectly content to be represented by any one of them.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I thank you again for the compliment you have paid me and especially for the flattering language in which you have seen fit to express the compliment. I desire, also, to thank my friends of that entire circle, of whom you say that I am the "unanimous choice." If it be true that, in their judgment, I have "contributed much" to the great and glorious victory we have won—a victory which involves the interest, and the rights, and the liberties of the people of the entire Union—then I am content. I ask for, and desire, nothing more.

With great respect, I am,

Very sincerely, yours, &c.,

ROBT. H. COWAN.

A Tainted Atmosphere

Malarious fevers are most prevalent in the fall. Heavy and unwholesome exhalations then arise from the earth, and the great disparity between the temperature of day and night predisposes the system, enfeebled by the summer heats, to epidemic diseases. The secretive organs, the liver especially, are apt, at this period of the year to become inert and sluggish, and all the bodily powers require renovation. The best, indeed the only protection against the morbid influences of the season is a wholesome medicated stimulant. Pre-eminent among the restoratives of this class, and indeed foremost among the remedial and preventive medicines of modern times, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its reputation is co-extensive with the Western Hemisphere; it has been a standard article for twenty years; its sales (as may be ascertained by the revenue returns) are far larger than those of any other proprietary preparation on this continent; and the testimony in its favor embraces letters of approval from the most distinguished members of all the learned professions and from well known residents of almost every city in the Union. These are its credentials. To state what it is doing to prevent and assuage the sufferings of the human family would require more space than can be given to the subject here. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the weak and emaciated, the desponding, the broken down, find in its life-restoring and regulating properties a sure and immediate means of relief. It is a pure vegetable specific at once safe and potent, and for which the whole materia medica affords no substitute

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, September 6th, 1870.

To the Sheriff or Tax Collector of ——— County:

FOR Your information I publish below the first clause of sec. 23, and Sec. 34 of "An Act to provide for the collection of Taxes by the State and by the several counties of the State, on Property, Polls and Incomes":

"Sec. 23. When State Taxes to be paid by Sheriff.

On or before the first day of October in each year, every sheriff shall return, on oath, to the Auditor of the State a duplicate account of all taxes collected by him, adding the sum apparently due from the tax list the amounts collected for penalties for delinquents. * * *

"Sec. 34. In every case of failure by a Sheriff, or other accounting officer, to settle his accounts within due time, or to take the oath required on his settlement, the Auditor shall forthwith report to the Treasurer the account of such sheriff or officer, and furnish him with a copy of the official bond of said officer and his sureties, but adding thereto one thousand dollars for the amount of taxes supposed not to appear in the list transmitted by the Clerk, and if the whole amount be not paid, the Treasurer, on motion of the Solicitor of the State in the superior Court of Wake County, at the first court, either general, special or courts of oyer and terminer, after the default shall have occurred, shall recover judgment against him without other notice than is given by the delinquency of the officer."

The condition of the Treasury demands that your settlement of State Taxes be made within the time prescribed by law, to-wit: "on or before the first day of October."

As you will see it is made the duty of the State Treasurer to move for judgment "through the Solicitor of the State, in the Superior Court of Wake county, at the first Court, either General, Special or Court of Oyer and Terminer, after the default shall have occurred," and I will be compelled to carry out the law strictly.

The Fall Term of the Superior Court of Wake county will commence Monday, October 3rd, 1870, and prompt action will be take at said Term against all Sheriffs, or other accounting officers, who shall fail to make final settlement of their State Tax Accounts, on or before the first of October.

The law gives me no discretion, and I cannot grant indulgence.

Your attention is called to the fact that the present revenue law does not authorize partial payments of State Taxes, and in view of the impossibility of Sheriffs to report the sources from which the taxes were received until final settlement, I cannot receive partial payments except as special deposits, as no entries can be made thereof on the general account books of the office, unless it be ascertained from what sources the taxes were received.

Very respectfully,

D. A. JENKINS,

Sept. 7-d1t. State Treasurer.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—The cities voted for licensing Lager Beer and Ale Saloons. The small towns voted "no."

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Favre is waiting a response to dispatches sent to the United States. It is thought that the reply will have a great effect throughout the country. Every French town heard from accepts the Republic joyfully.

Engineers are destroying the tunnels running East from Paris.

The Prussians are at Sissons, marching rapidly upon Paris. Nothing from Strasbourg. Trochu reiterates the statement that Paris is safe. The Prussians have reached Laon as heretofore reported.

It is confirmed that the Orleans Princes are en route for Paris, and it is reported that the Ministry have determined to arrest them on their arrival.

It is reported that a difficulty occurred between Trochu and the Ministry when the Ministry resigned and harmony was restored. The difficulty arose from a proposition in regard to arming all classes, which Trochu successfully opposed.

Immense defensive preparations continue. The army is retiring before the Prussian advance. It seems that there is but one sentiment among the people in regard to the defense of the nation. Organization is quietly proceeding. There is no dissent from the necessity of a Republic anywhere. There is great rejoicing at the removal of the Press Censorship. War news and details are published without hindrance. The Prussian advance is announced at Soissons.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—Russia is about proposing a Congress of the great powers. Prussia will certainly decline.

BRUSSELLS, Sept. 7.—Eugenie is the guest of the Hoover family at Chateau Meyenes, near Brussels.

Yesterday trains were arriving hourly from the front with artillery, cavalry and infantry.—The rolling stock of the Eastern roads are concentrated here and sent to the West and South.

ROME, Sept. 7.—The proclamation of the French Republic caused profound sensation.—Arrests which were numerous before, are innumerable.

LONDON, September 7.—The National Guard failed to check the Prussians crossing the Rhine near Malhouse. The wounded at Sedan have been distributed among the villages.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Secretary Cox is corresponding with missionary and religious organizations to secure Indian agents.

The Attorney General decides that appropriations for specific objects, are not annual appropriations within the meaning of the law. This decision allows Light Houses and other public improvements to proceed.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Specie shipments to-day amount to $300 000. Bids for government gold reached 24 with no sales.

The following is a special to the Herald from London: "The journey of the Imperial Prince was strictly private, his Governor prohibiting conversations on account of his health.

Grammont is here; he escaped via Havre.—He converses freely, and says that the revolutionary government cannot last. Recent tests, he said, prove its members have not the confidence of the people. The men now in power are those whose efforts have heretofore been directed to embarrass the real government and to assure the failure of the war.

Republican agents are constantly endeavoring to shake the confidence and destroy and disrupt the army. He attributes the loss of the several battles to this cause, and does not see how Foreign governments can recognize the Republic; for to-morrow another batch might get up and declare themselves the Provisional government and involve the city in bloodshed. He considers such a result as more than probable if arms be placed in the hands of the lower classes. The first new reverse on the approach of the Prussians, before the city, might be a signal for the overthrow of the present self-constituted Ministry, and the creation of another. Grammont confides in Trochu, but apprehends that he will not be permitted to have his own way. He believes that France is fully able to vindicate her honor and expel the Prussians from her territory." He declines to express an opinion as to the future fate of the Emperor or the dynasty.

Grammont had a long interview with Gladstone and Granville.

The instructions to Lord Lyons, the English Minister to Paris, are to the effect to recognize the actual authorities, but avoid as far as possible a formal recognition.

BANKER CIGARS.
PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mahogan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.
We honestly think two boxes of Mahogan's Bankers might be induced to indemnify even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.
We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoling with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.
Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:
PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.
The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE EQUITABLE HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.
Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.
In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;
In 1869 it was the FIRST.
The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "ANNUAL" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.
One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.
Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.
Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!
THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES
DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,
IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.
The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.
The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important ELEMENT. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.
YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A NEW SYSTEM,
devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in
and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, one durably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.
The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. The policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a prestige which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 3 or more annual premiums.
☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and Mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to cease through life, or for a series of years as preferred.
Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.
The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
